American League PRESIDENTS

The 1984 American League RED BOOK is dedicated to Lee MacPhail, who retired December 31st as American League President, after serving in that capacity for the past decade. He is now serving Baseball as President of the Player Relations Committee, the labor arm of Major League Baseball.

At the same time, the American League welcomes the sixth President since its founding in 1900 . . . Dr. Robert W. Brown—the one-time Yankee third baseman, better known as Bobby Brown.

LELAND S. MAC PHAIL, JR.
10 Years
1974-1983
Elected for 5-year term October 23, 1973, effective January 1, 1974 and re-elected for 5 years. Announced his retirement, but was elected President of Player Relations Committee, effective January 1, 1984.

A Salute . . .

He's been a part of Baseball for more than 40 years. First a minor league executive, then joined the Brooklyn Dodgers after World War II. He was with the Yankee organization with his Dad (the late Larry MacPhail—member of the Hall of Fame) and remained with the Yankees in a variety of roles. He joined the Orioles as G.M. (later as president), built the O's to championship calibre, joined the Commissioner's office as Administrator and became Yankee Executive Vice President-General Manager before assuming the American League presidency.

To Lee MacPhail . . . for his leadership in the A.L. and his contributions to baseball, this edition of the American League RED BOOK is dedicated.

A Greeting . . .

"It is with great anticipation and excitement that I view the upcoming 1984 baseball season, and my return to the game after such a long absence.

I am anxious to renew old friendships, and to meet the many fans and media members who do so much to make this the greatest of all sports.

I hope to continue the effective leadership of Lee MacPhail, who is retiring as American League President after a decade of service. Baseball has prospered under his guidance and it should continue to reach new heights as the 80's unfold."

Bobby Brown

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING--WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League--No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (PDT) to final day of season.

Inter-League--Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two inter-league trading periods. (The first inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waivers in the period starting at 12:01 Pacific Time, February 15th, and ending on April 1st (5:00 P.M. - PST). The second inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until 5:00 P.M. local city time in the city in which the meetings are being held, the day before the last scheduled day of the Annual Meetings.

National Association--Waivers are required at all times for assignment to National Association, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
- (1) A curfew imposed by law;
- (2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
- (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);
- (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.
- (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
  - (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
  - (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
- (1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;
  or
- (2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule; or
- (3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible:
  - (i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game; or
  - (ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
- (4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Amend 4.11(d) to read as follows:

(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:
- (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
- (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PINE TAR RULING ADJUSTMENT

As a result of the "celebrated" Pine Tar case of last summer, the Rules Committee adjusted the wording of Rule 1.10 to more adequately interpret intention of the rule.

The new section is included in revised section 1.10(c), which now reads:

"(c) The bat handle, for not more than 18 inches from its end, may be covered or treated with a material or substance to improve the grip. Any such material or substance, which extends past the 18 inch limitation, shall cause the bat to be removed from the game.

NOTE: If the umpire discovers that the bat does not conform to (c) above until a time during or after which the bat has been used in play, it shall not be grounds for declaring the batter out, or ejected from the game."

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM. local time, it can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final game between two teams in each of the cities. In Baltimore, play is to end at 11:59 PM on Saturday nights only, regardless of the situation. On all other nights, Baltimore observes the American League curfew.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOHN FRANCIS MC NAMARA—Born June 4, 1932, Sacramento, CA; Residence: Cincinnati, OH ... Married (Kathleen Fordon), four children ... Height: five feet, ten inches; Weight: 175 pounds ... Named to succeed Gene Mauch on November 2, 1982.

JOHN McNAMARA is starting his second year at the helm for California and his 11th full year as a major league manager. Only Ralph Houk (Boston) and Sparky Anderson (Detroit) hold seniority over McNamara among A.L. skippers. During his career he has managed four other current A.L. headmen—Doug Rader, Pat Corrales, Rene Lachemann and Tony La Russa. McNamara is in his second go-around with the club having previously served California as a coach in 1978. A former catcher with exception of 14 games spread over a four-year span as a pitcher in the minors, he began managing at age 26. McNamara worked nine years in the minor leagues including pennant winning seasons with Mobile (1966) and Birmingham (1967), both of the Southern League. The latter effort earned him a promotion to the parent Oakland A's. He has remained in the major leagues ever since as either manager or coach. McNamara coached the A's in 1968-69, San Francisco from 1971-73 and the Angels. His first major league managing assignment was with the A's on September 19, 1969 when he replaced Hank Bauer. McNamara skippered the A's the following year to a second place finish, later managed San Diego during its embryonic years (1974-77) and was the headman at Cincinnati from 1979-82. During his years with the Reds he led the club to the National League West title in 1979 (the same year the Angels won their first division crown) and in 1981—the strike abbreviated season—Mac's Reds posted the best over-all record in baseball yet failed to appear in post season competition. In his first season with California the Angels were in first place as late as July 10 before a crippling amount of injuries (63) forced a total of 15 players to spend time on the disabled list ended any chance of the club repeating as division titlist. McNamara attended Sacramento State College. As a prep he was president of the altar boy society at St. Francis parish and aspired to be a priest. His philosophy might be best described by a plaque he keeps in his office ... it reads "To handle yourself, use your head. To handle others, use your heart."

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY LA RUSSA—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, Florida; Residence: Sarasota Florida . . . Married (Elaine), two children; Height: six feet one inch; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Named manager August 2, 1979, succeeding Don Kessinger.

Of all the awards and accolades that came Manager Tony La Russa's way following the White Sox' record shattering 1983 season, the one he really should have received eluded him: "Comeback-of-the-Year." For over the past couple of years no one was counted on more often than La Russa. To his credit, however, he kept his concentration on the field and the White Sox rewarded his patience by assembling the second best win total in the 84-year history of the franchise, winning their first title in 24 years and establishing a set of new records for winning margin. The 1983 White Sox won-loss record of 99-63 was second only to the 1917 Sox, who compiled a 100-54 record to win the A.L. pennant by 9 games. However, the '83 Sox winning margin of 20 games set three records: largest winning margin in the history of the White Sox, largest winning margin in A.L. history prior to division play (breaking old mark of 19½ games by the 1936 Yankees), and largest winning margin in the A.L. since divisional play began in 1969 (breaking old mark of 19 games by the '69 Baltimore Orioles). When the season ended La Russa was named major league "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, and he was voted American League "Manager of the Year" by both the Baseball Writers' Association of America and the Associated Press. The won-loss record of his 1983 White Sox club gives La Russa a major league career managing record of 30 games over .500 heading into the 1984 campaign. In four-plus seasons in the big leagues, all with the White Sox, Tony's teams own a composite record of 337 wins against 307 losses (.523 win percentage). Tony led the White Sox to an 87-75 record and a third place finish in the A.L. West in 1982. He was named to manage the White Sox on August 2, 1979 after piloting AAA farm club Iowa to a 54-48 record. In 1981, Tony led the team to a 54-52 mark and the White Sox have been over the .500 mark in each of the last 3 seasons under his helm, owning a composite 240-190 (.558 record). An attorney by training, Tony gained his first managerial experience with the Sox' AA Knoxville club in 1978, winning first half honors in the Southern League and being promoted to White Sox coach on July 3rd. He was a star athlete at Tampa's Jefferson High and first signed with Kansas City, reaching the majors in 1963. He also played with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON—Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA . . . Married (Carol), three children . . . Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds . . . Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

Sparky Anderson, the dean of American League managers, piloted his team to a 92-70 record and a second place finish in 1983. It was one place lower in the standings than he is accustomed to, but with a new contract that runs through 1986, he is confident the Tigers are ready to move up one notch. Anderson's 14-year record of 1,238 wins and 912 losses (.576) is unsurpassed by active managers and ranks 9th in ML history for those with at least 10 years experience. His victory total is second on the list among current managers. Only Boston's Ralph Houk can claim more wins than the popular Tiger field leader. Anderson joined the Tigers on June 14, 1979 with a contract that runs through 1984. Before joining the Tigers, the two-time National League Manager of the Year directed the Cincinnati Reds to a 863-586 mark between 1970 and 1978. Under the leadership of Anderson, the Reds won two world championships, four National League pennants and five West Division titles from 1970 through 1978. During that period, the Reds finished first or second each year except 1971 when they finished fourth. Born Feb. 22, 1934 in Bridgewater, SD, but raised in California, Anderson played in the minor leagues as an infielder six years before playing for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959. That was his only season in the major leagues as a player. Anderson then returned to the minor leagues and played four more seasons with Toronto in the International League before taking over as manager at Toronto in 1964. He then managed in the minor leagues four more years before becoming a coach for the San Diego Padres in 1969. He was added to the California Angels' coaching staff that October—but within 24 hours was named manager of the Cincinnati Reds on Oct. 9, 1969. In Anderson's first year as a major league manager, the 1970 Reds won 102 games before sweeping Pittsburgh in three games in the playoffs and then losing the World Series to Baltimore. The 1972 Reds won another National League pennant before losing to Oakland in the World Series. In 1973, the Reds won the National League West Division, but bowed to the New York Mets in the playoffs. The Anderson-led Reds made the most of their two trips to the World Series by winning back-to-back championships in 1975 and 1976. The Reds defeated the Red Sox in seven games in 1975 in a memorable struggle. They came back in 1976 to sweep the New York Yankees in four games. Anderson was named National League Manager of the Year in 1972 and 1975.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RICHARD DALTON HOWSER—Born May 14, 1936, Miami, FL . . . Residence: Tallahassee, FL . . . Married (Nancy), two children . . . Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight: 155 pounds . . . Named Royals manager August 31, 1981.

He has compiled a solid 292-227 record in three-plus seasons as a major league manager for a .562 winning percentage. The Royals won second half title in '81 under Howser and recorded second place finishes in '82 and '83 despite variety of key injuries. His first full season was '82 and the club posted a 90-72 record. Under his guidance the '82 Royals led the major leagues with a .285 batting average and led the American League in hits, doubles and triples. He managed the 1980 New York Yankees to the best record in baseball with a 103-59 (.635) slate and the Eastern Division Championship. Dick became only the 4th manager in history to win 100 or more games as a first year manager (Ralph Houk won 109 in '61, Sparky Anderson won 102 in '70 and Mickey Cochrane won 101 in '34). Howser is a veteran of 24 years in professional baseball, including eight years as a major league player, ten years as a coach and two years as a manager. Howser was the Yankees' third base coach for ten years (1969-78) succeeding Frank Crosetti. Dick began his professional career in 1958 following his collegiate playing days at Florida State. He was signed by the Kansas City Athletics. Dick was named The Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961. During his rookie campaign, he was also selected for the A.L. All-Star squad. With the Indians in 1964 he tied the A.L. record for most games played by a shortstop (162) and tied for the league lead with six sacrifice hits. He compiled a .248 lifetime major league batting average in 789 games. Howser coached FSU's baseball team in 1979 leading the Seminoles to a 43-16 record and to the NCAA Eastern Regionals in his first year as a collegiate coach. He holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JOE (Bobby) COX—Born May 21, 1941, Tulsa, OK; Residence: Marietta, GA ... Married (Pamela), four children ... Height: Six feet; Weight: 185 pounds ... Third manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 15, 1981.

Bobby starts his third season at the helm of the Blue Jays after guiding the club to their first .500 season in 1983, finishing in fourth place with an 89-72 record. It marked the second season of noticeable improvement for the Blue Jays under the Cox regime. In 1982 the club finished with a 78-84 record, tying for sixth place and marking the first time in franchise history that the club had not finished last. An avid supporter of the platoon system, Cox enjoys the highest winning percentage of a Blue Jays manager, 167-157 .515. Prior to signing with the Blue Jays he managed the Atlanta Braves of the National League for four seasons following a successful minor league career in the New York Yankee system. Cox compiled a 266-323 record in his four seasons at Atlanta, finishing the 1980 campaign with a fourth place, 81-80 slate. He received numerous votes for NL Manager of the Year honors as the Braves were widely acclaimed as the most improved team in the NL that season. Only Luman Harris (five years) managed the Braves longer than Cox. Originally signed as an infielder by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Cox started his 10-year playing career in 1960. He was dealt to Atlanta in a minor league trade in 1966 and following the 1967 season, he was traded again, to the New York Yankees. He became the Yankees starting third baseman in 1968, batting .229 but lost his job to his roommate, Bobby Murcer, who opened the 1969 season. Cox hit .215 in 1969 for a two-season .225 lifetime average in the Majors. He retired due to bad knees following the 1970 season, but remained in the Yankees' organization as manager of their Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team. He never finished lower than fourth in his six years as a manager in the Yankee system, winning his first pennant and championship with West Haven in the Eastern League (Class AA) in 1972. In the next four seasons, all at Syracuse on the Triple A level, he finished second twice and third twice and won the International League Championship's Governors Cup in 1976. In 1977, he was a first base coach with the Yankees.

LA MARR HOYT, 24-GAME WINNER VOTED CY YOUNG AWARD HONORS

The Chicago White Sox' ace right-hander, LaMarr Hoyt, was the American League Cy Young Award winner for 1983 after posting a 24-10 record to lead the league in wins for the second consecutive season.

The only pitcher named on all 28 Cy Young ballots in the BBWAA voting, Hoyt gained 17 first place votes, 10 seconds and one third. Dan Quisenberry, Kansas City's bullpen stalwart, was second in the voting with 81 points (nine first place votes) and Jack Morris of Detroit was third with 38 points (and two first place votes).

Hoyt was not only the American League's first 20-game winner since 1980, but this teammate Rich Dotson was second in the league with 22 victories. Hoyt's winning percentage of .705 was fourth in the league and his 148 strikeouts, 260.2 innings pitched, 36 starts and 11 complete games also were among the league leaders.

With five points for first place, three for second, and one for third, the 1983 standings were as follows:

FIRST BBWAA MANAGER OF YEAR AWARD GOES TO TONY LA RUSSA

For the first time, the Baseball Writers Association of America selected an "official" "Manager of the Year" and the first such honor in the American League went to the Chicago White Sox pilot, Tony LaRussa. He managed the White Sox to more regular season victories than any team in the major leagues, 99.

LaRussa received 17 of the 28 first place votes (there are two votes in each A.L. city for a total of 28) while Joe Altobelli of the World Champion Baltimore Orioles garnered seven votes and Toronto's Bobby Cox took the other four.

Tony has been White Sox manager since the middle of the 1979 season. The only American League manager with longer tenure is Detroit's Sparky Anderson.

Cal Ripken, Jr. of the World Champion Baltimore Orioles was the 1983 Most Valuable Player in the American League, according to the official election by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. The 23-year-old Oriole shortstop gained 15 of a possible 28 first place votes, nine seconds, three thirds and a fourth to edge teammate Eddie Murray, 322 points to 290.

Murray, the O's All-Star switch-hitting first baseman, received 10 first place ballots, 11 seconds, five thirds, a fourth and a seventh. They were the only two players to be named on all 28 ballots. Carlton Fisk, veteran catching star for the Chicago White Sox, came in third in the voting and received three first place votes, and a total of 209 points.

Ripken thus became the first A.L. player to win back-to-back Rookie and MVP Awards in his first two major league seasons. Fred Lynn then of Boston, won both awards in his 1975 rookie season and Rod Carew won both awards ten years apart, in 1967 and 1977.

Ripken led the league in total hits with 211, in runs with 121 and in doubles with 47. He was second in total bases with 343 (one less than league leader Jim Rice of Boston) and was among the league leaders in batting average (.318), home runs (27), RBIs (102), Game-Winning RBIs (17), and slugging percentage (.517).

Points are scored in MVP balloting with 14 for first place, nine for second, eight for third, etc.

ROD CAREW TOPS ALL ACTIVE HITTERS AT .331; SIX IN LEAGUE ARE BATTING OVER .300

Rod Carew, who hit .339 in 1983—his 15th consecutive season over the coveted .300 level, continues to lead all active major league players with a lifetime average of .331. All told there are six current American Leaguers who are hitting .300 or better (based on 1,000 or more major league at bats).

George Brett of Kansas City is second among the American League's active players at .316. Cecil Cooper of Milwaukee is third at .308. Jim Rice of Boston and Willie Wilson of Kansas City are next with .305 marks. Ken Griffey of New York is the sixth with a .304 average.

The 1983 Major League Batting leader, Wade Boggs of Boston, has a .357 mark in only two seasons. His 920 at bats are short of the 1,000 needed but he should be joining the .300 club next year.

COINCIDENCE!

The American League presidents are in a pattern. New President Bobby Brown and former President Lee MacPhail both were born on October 25th (Brown in 1924, MacPhail in 1917).

ALL-STAR GAME IN SAN FRANCISCO; MEETINGS IN HOUSTON, PHILADELPHIA

The 55th All-Star Game will be played the night of Tuesday, July 10th at Candlestick Park in San Francisco. The 30th All-Star classic also was played at Candlestick with the National League scoring twice in the tenth inning after the A.L. had taken a 4-3 lead in the top half of the inning. Whitey Ford started for the Americans and Warren Spahn for the Nationals. The Hall of Fame lefties each hurled three innings. Near gale-like winds played a part in the late innings, causing reliever Stu Miller to balk in the ninth and resulting in a costly error by Ken Boyer that permitted the A.L. to tie the score.

The annual (winter) meetings of major and minor league baseball will be held in Houston, commencing next December 3rd. The annual mid-season (summer) meetings will be held at the Four Seasons Hotel in Philadelphia on August 22nd and 23rd.

RON GUIDRY NAMED WINNER OF PRESTIGIOUS CLEMENTE AWARD

Ron Guidry, the New York Yankees' pitching star who owns a lifetime .705 winning percentage and a 2.99 ERA, has been named the winner of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award.

Guidry is the 14th winner of the award, established in honor of the late Pittsburgh Hall of Fame outfielder. The award is presented annually and is based on "sportsmanship, character, community involvement, humanitarianism, playing ability and the individual's contributions to his team and to baseball."

The Yankee left-hander has assisted Special Olympics chapters around the nation and served in 1983 as Honorary Fund Raising Chairman of the International Summer Special Olympics Games. He believes that service to humanity is the most important work of his life. He has made multiple contributions of time and money to causes that better society.

The Louisiana-born lefty's .705 winning percentage (122-51) is the highest of any active American League pitcher.

Previous Clemente Award winners were:

1971 Willie Mays
1972 Brooks Robinson
1973 Al Kaline
1974 Willie Stargell
1975 Lou Brock
1976 Pete Rose
1977 Rod Carew
1978 Greg Luzinski
1979 Andre Thornton
1980 Phil Niekro
1981 Steve Garvey
1982 Ken Singleton
1983 Cecil Cooper

NEW AMERICAN LEAGUE PRESIDENT BOBBY BROWN as he appeared in his New York Yankee uniform some 35 years ago. In a comparatively brief career (less than seven full seasons), interrupted by military service and medical studies at Tulane University (also attended UCLA and Stanford), Dr. Brown had a career .279 average. He was just warming up when the season ended, attested to by a .439 World Series average in four Yankee series. His three pinch-hits in the 1947 Series set a World Series mark, since tied, and he shares other series pinch-hitting records.

All-Star Game
FRED LYNN

The American League already held a comfortable 5-1 lead in the bottom of the third inning of the All-Star Game in Comiskey Park. There were two out with Manny Trillo on third and Rod Carew at second. The pitcher was Atlee Hammaker, a southpaw and former A. L. pitcher. He walked the batter, Robin Yount, intentionally, to set up the lefty vs. lefty confrontation with Fred Lynn. With the count 2-2, Fred hit a slider to right center field for the first Grand Slam home run in All-Star history—54 games.

This was the 50th anniversary of the first All-Star classic, at the same ball park—50 years to the day after the American League had won in 1933 by a 4-2 score on Babe Ruth's home run. Before a standing room crowd of 43,801 and millions more on television, the American League defeated the Nationals, 13-3, and broke the National League's 11-game All-Star winning streak.

Lynn's clout, of course, won him the Most Valuable Player honors for the game. He had led A. L. outfielders in the Gillette balloting, despite the fact he was having an off season at the plate with the California Angels. The trophy he is holding in the photo above was presented to Fred by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

American League Championship Series
MIKE BODDICKER

MVP generally signifies the most valuable player in the league for the season. But on this page, MVP refers to the Most Valuable Players in the All Star Game (Fred Lynn), the American League Championship Series (Mike Boddicker) and the MVP in the World Series (Rick Dempsey).

The photo at the bottom of this column shows Lee MacPhail (then the American League President) announcing the winner of the ALCS MVP—Baltimore rookie pitcher Mike Boddicker (center) with Matt Murphy (right) representing the Chevrolet Division of General Motors. Mr. Murphy was presenting the key to a Chevrolet S-10 Blazer to Boddicker for his shutout of the Chicago White Sox in the second game of the ALCS.

Boddicker posted a 16-8 season with a 2.77 ERA in less than a full season for the World Champion Orioles . . . then went on to win a 4-1, three-hit victory over Philadelphia in the World Series.

World Series
RICK DEMPSEY

Representing the "team concept" that helped bring the World Championship to Baltimore, World Series MVP Rick Dempsey batted .395 in the five-game series with Philadelphia, including a record-tying four doubles. The four doubles plus his fifth game home run gave the veteran Oriole receiver a record five long hits in a five game series.

While Baltimore's victory in five games was a team triumph, the 34-year-old Dempsey again displayed his all-for-one, one-for-all spirit that has been his hallmark as an Oriole.

Rick Dempsey was a unanimous choice as Most Valuable Player in the 1983 World Series.

DETROIT TIGERS PLAY ATLANTA IN ANNUAL "HALL OF FAME" GAME AUG. 13

The Detroit Tigers return to Cooperstown, New York on Monday, August 13th to play the Atlanta Braves in the annual "Hall of Fame" game. The Tigers were in Cooperstown in 1978, and played a rain-abbreviated 4-4 tie in six innings with the New York Mets.

The Tigers beat the Pirates 10-1 in the 1968 game (the year they won the World Championship). In two earlier appearances, the old New York Giants beat the Tigers (9-5 in 1946 and 11-10 in 12 innings in 1956).

The Braves will serve as the home team at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown in August. The game will conclude the big "Hall of Fame" weekend in which Luis Aparicio, Harmon Killebrew and Don Drysdale will be inducted along with any nominees selected by the Veterans Committee on March 4th. Induction ceremonies will take place on the steps of the Library on Sunday, August 12th.

"YAZ" CLOSES OUT DISTINGUISHED CAREER WITH "CLASS ACT"; PLAYS 3,308 GAMES—MOST IN HISTORY

Carl Yastrzemski closed his distinguished 23-year career with the Boston Red Sox by playing 3,308 games, more than any previous player in the long history of the game. Baseball's last Triple Crown winner (1967-44 home runs, 121 RBIs, .326 average), Yaz set a host of records and retired high on many offensive lists.

A dramatic "day" for Carl was held at Fenway Park last October 1st with a capacity throng on hand to salute the Boston hero. Other clubs around the American League wanted to pay tribute to Yastrzemski on his last trip to each American League city, but Carl declined the honor. On "GOOD MORNING AMERICA" on ABC-TV, Sept. 30th, host David Hartman asked Yaz about his pending retirement:

Hartman: "Was there a reason why you would not let other clubs in the American League hold Carl Yastrzemski days to honor you?" (Question is paraphrased.)

Yastrzemski: ". . . . I wanted to say 'thank you' to the fans and the media. I didn't want them to say 'thank you' to me. I didn't want to disrupt my club which I thought had a chance in the pennant race. . . . I hope I represented Boston with some class . . . as did Musial with St. Louis and DiMaggio with the Yankees . . ."

RIGHETTI, WARREN THROW FIRST A.L. NO-HITTERS SINCE 1981

Not since Len Barker (then of Cleveland) threw his perfect game against Toronto on May 15th, 1981 had a no-hitter been pitched in the American League. Dave Righetti, New York Yankee southpaw, threw one at the Red Sox at Yankee Stadium on the Fourth of July, 1983. And it was the first no-hitter at Yankee Stadium since Don Larsen hurled his memorable World Series perfect game against the Dodgers on October 8, 1956.

Then, on the last Thursday of the '83 season, rookie Mike Warren of the Oakland A's blanked the western champion White Sox without a hit, winning 3-0 at Oakland. He was the first rookie in more than 10 years to throw a no-hitter.

Including Righetti and Warren, only six active American League pitchers have thrown major league no-hitters. They include Bert Blyleven, Dennis Eckersley, Jim Bibby and Jim Palmer. Three others have pitched briefly in no hitters in relief (Francisco Barrios, Rollie Fingers and Glenn Abbott). Nolan Ryan, still active with Houston, threw four no-hitters in the American League.

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1984 SCHEDULE

Many fans have expressed an interest in the schedule-making process. Basically, it is rather simple in design although difficult to complete because of 14 teams in the American League . . . seven in each division.

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division. As an example, the Chicago White Sox play the Texas Rangers 13 times in 1984, seven at home and six on the road. This is alternated each year. The same arrangement applies to all clubs within each division.

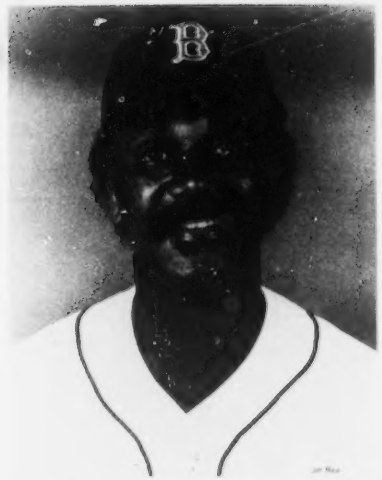
AVERAGE TIME OF ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE NINE-INNING GAMES IN 1983 = 2:38



For the third time in his nine year Red Sox career, Boston's JIM RICE led the American League in home runs with 39 in 1983. He also topped the league in 1977 with 39, and again in 1978 with 46. He has 276 round trippers for his career to date. The big slugger batted .305 in 1983 (his career batting average). It was the sixth time he had batted over .300. Rice led the American League in total bases in 1983 with 344, one more than Baltimore MVP Cal Ripken, Jr. Rice was second in slugging percentage with .550 (George Brett led with .563), fifth in hits with 191 and tied for the league lead in runs batted in with 126 (with Cecil Cooper).

OLYMPIC BASEBALL STARTS ON JULY 31 WITH FINALS AUG. 7

Though it's only a "demonstration sport" at the upcoming Olympics in Los Angeles, American baseball fans and officials at all levels of the game are eagerly anticipating the July 31st opening of the baseball competition. The finals of the Olympic Baseball tournament, set for Dodger Stadium on August 7th, already are sold out.

But Coach Rod Dedeaux and his assistants of the USA squad have another date pencilled in on their calendars. It is August 4th when the USA team meets the highly favored Cuban squad. It isn't that Dedeaux and his staff lack confidence in the American squad, but the Cubans are expected to average 28 years of age compared to a range of 18 to 20 for the USA squad. Of course, the Cubans have all players available to them for the Olympics as none of their players are permitted in Organized Baseball (professional ball).

The AMERICAN LEAGUE
A Brief History
1901 – 1984

The American League of Professional Baseball Clubs was founded January 29, 1900 and became an operating major league commencing in 1901. In all of that time, the league has had only five presidents with Dr. Robert W. Brown (Bobby Brown) taking over as the sixth president this year. In the 83 intervening years, the A. L. has won 46 World Series, the National League has taken 34 (the series started in 1903, was not played in '04, but resumed in 1905).

Before the turn of the century, the old American Association, Union Association and Players' League had expired and the sole major league — the National League — expanded to 12 teams in the 1890s. Byron Bancroft (Ban) Johnson, sports editor of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, was confident that there was a place for a second major baseball league, for under his guidance, the Western League, a minor loop, had flourished. In late 1899 the National League gave Johnson his opportunity by reducing the size of its league to eight clubs. The 35-year-old Johnson moved the St. Paul, Minn., and Grand Rapids, Mich., franchises to Chicago and Cleveland, respectively, and changed the circuit's name to the American League.

The other teams in the loop were Buffalo, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The next (1901) season, Johnson acted to bring his league to major status instead of remaining a sectional minor league by shifting four franchises to major eastern cities. Washington, Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia replaced Indianapolis, Kansas City, Buffalo and Minneapolis. At the same time his recruiting campaign brought to the new major league such established big time stars as Cy Young, Napoleon Lajoie, Willie Keeler, Sam Crawford and Jimmy Collins.

In 1902 St. Louis replaced Milwaukee and in 1903 New York joined the American League in place of Baltimore, leaving the league with an eight team lineup of Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Washington. That array of clubs remained stable for 51 consecutive years. The short lived Baltimore and Milwaukee clubs bore the same team nicknames as their modern counterparts — the Orioles and Brewers.

Peace between the two leagues came in January, 1903, with the American League gaining parity. Any doubts about the strength of the new league were eliminated when Boston beat Pittsburgh in the 1903 World Series, the first ever. Ban Johnson, of course, was president of the American League from the start, and served until he resigned because of failing health on October 18, 1927. He was succeeded by Ernest S. Barnard, who died in office in 1931. Will Harridge was then elected and served until 1959. Joe Cronin, a Hall of Fame player and later a successful manager and general manager, assumed office and presided over the league until 1974, when Lee MacPhail was elected the fifth president of the league. Cronin was elected Chairman of the Board. MacPhail served for a decade and was succeeded this year by Dr. Brown.

In 1954, the St. Louis Browns moved to Baltimore, and the next year Philadelphia moved to Kansas City. The A. L. expanded in 1961, putting new teams in Los Angeles (later Anaheim) and Washington. The old Washington Senators moved to Minnesota and became the Twins, Charles Finley moved the Kansas City franchise to Oakland in 1968, and in 1969 the league expanded again, this time into Kansas City and Seattle. The Seattle franchise moved the next year to Milwaukee. The 1969 expansion resulted in a major change to divisional play, with a best-of-five league championship playoff determining the pennant winner. The expansion Washington team moved to Texas in 1972.

In 1972 (for the 1973 season), the American League adopted the "Designated Hitter" rule which allows an assigned hitter for the pitcher, an innovation that has materially increased the league's offense right through the 1983 season. (See accompanying box.) It was the first major rules change in baseball since the nineteenth century.

The American League took a giant step in 1976 by expanding to 14 teams — adding Seattle and Toronto — effective with the 1977 baseball season. The Mariners opened in the new Kingdome, the first enclosed dome stadium in the A. L. Since then, the Twins have moved into the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome (1982) in downtown Minneapolis. The Toronto Blue Jays developed a strong fan following from the outset, and last season, as a contender, attracted nearly two million fans.

Over the years, there have been a variety of dominant teams with the New York Yankees undoubtedly being the most prominent, winning 33 league championships and 22 World Series. Boston won the first Series in 1903, Baltimore the most recent in 1983. The Yankees became dominant in the 20s, Philadelphia's A's (1929–31), Detroit and New York in the thirties, the Yankees again in the 50s and 60s. Baltimore was a frequent winner in the sixties and early 70s, followed by Oakland dominance in the mid-70s.

The league has produced a multitude of outstanding players, super stars and Hall of Famers . . . the most dominant personalities including Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Ted Williams, Jimmy Foxx, Joe DiMaggio, Bob Feller among many others.

The league has attracted over 633 million fans these past 83 seasons, reaching twenty million a season four of the last five years. In 1983, the all-time sports league attendance record was shattered when the A. L. attracted 23,991,053 fans.

CURT GOWDY NAMED 1984 FRICK AWARD WINNER; SEVENTH BROADCAST HONOREE

Curt Gowdy, veteran network sports broadcaster and a long-time play-by-play man for the Boston Red Sox, is the winner of the Ford C. Frick Award for 1984. Gowdy will be honored along with the baseball inductees at Cooperstown, N. Y. on Sunday, August 12th. The award is presented annually in the name of the late Commissioner, who, in his early years, was a baseball broadcaster.

Gowdy, who was referred to in the Hall of Fame release as "one of sports' most versatile and respected announcers", was the voice of the Red Sox for 15 seasons, followed by 10 years with NBC on "Game of the Week", and later with ABC-TV and CBS Radio. He has broadcast 13 World Series, 16 All-Star games, plus the Super Bowl, the Montreal Olympics and as host of the "American Sportsman." In 1970, Gowdy won the prestigious George Foster Peabody Award for excellence in broadcasting.

The Frick Award was established in 1978 with Mel Allen and Red Barber as the first co-recipients. Other winners were Bob Elson (1979), Russ Hodges (1980), Ernie Harwell (1981), Vince Scully (1982) and Jack Brickhouse (1983).
